

November 2, 2015

Wagner College Theatre to present 'Wagner Sings Rock & Roll' to benefit BC/EFA, Nov. 7

Wagner College Theatre's Advisory Board will present "Wagner Sings Rock & Roll" to benefit Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS on Nov. 7 at 7:30 p.m. in Wagner College Theatre Stage One.

The evening features the talents of Allie Luecke, Maria Salerno, Noah Bridgestock, Darnell Xavier Kenney, Megan Viglione, Bobbi Barricella, Jesse Pimpinella, Jasmine Canziani, Natalie Schaffer, Stephen Kallas, Lauren Dennis, Dan Marconi, Nick Barakos, Ryan Moroney, McKenzie Kupres, Brianna Brice, April Lillard, Tatiana Eriksen, Julia Adams, Kanyi Creppy, John Drinkwater, Matt Drinkwater, Gabriel Trimbur, and Samantha Quinn rocking out to songs ranging from the Foo Fighters, Bruce Springsteen, Queen, Green Day, and more.

Accompanying the singers are Chris Rucci, Mark Fabian, Alec Reiss and Maria Salerno.

Admission is $5 with a student ID and $7 for general admission. The benefit will also feature raffle prizes and a silent auction. Seating is limited. For ticket reservations, e-mail Madison Decker at madison.decker@wagner.edu.

Wagner Sings Rock & Roll is produced by Madison Decker and Wagner College Theatre Advisory Board.