Just in time for the 50th anniversary of the Broadway production of "Hair," the award-winning Wagner College Theatre, as part of its 50th anniversary season, proudly presents "Hair: The Great American Rock Musical," with performances through April 29 in the Main Hall.

Performances of "Hair" are today and tomorrow at 8 p.m., with matinees tomorrow and Sunday at 2 p.m.

Featuring a timeless score by Staten Island's own Galt MacDermot, with book and lyrics by James Rado and Gerome Ragni, Wagner's "Hair" is directed by Broadway veteran Darren Lee (national tour of "The King and I") with music direction by David Sisco (Wagner College Theatre's "La Cage aux Folles").

"Hair" celebrates the 1960s counter-culture with all its barefoot, long-haired, bell-bottomed and denim glory.

To an energetic rock beat, the show features popular anthems like "Aquarius/Let the Sunshine In," "Good Morning, Starshine" and the title anthem

"Hair" is a reminder of such ideals as peace, love and acceptance — and what it means to be young and believe you can change the world.
