

HONOR ROLL OF DONORS

Inner Circle

As Wagner College's leadership giving society, the Inner Circle forms the influential core of Wagner's annual supporters. They are vital to Wagner's ability to be innovative in its curriculum, supportive to its students, and proactive in campus maintenance.

MEMBERSHIP: In fiscal year 2019, Inner Circle members made an annual gift of $1,500 or more. In fiscal year 2020, we are introducing a new giving structure to help us realize our fundraising priorities over the next few years. Inner Circle members are asked to increase their annual giving: $1,500 or more for fiscal year 2020; $2,000 or more for fiscal year 2021; and $2,500 or more for fiscal year 2022.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS: Special access to Wagner College's campus resources, preferred seating or VIP designation at Wagner College events, an exclusive invitation to a presidential reception, and an insider's newsletter.

WAYS TO JOIN THE INNER CIRCLE: Gifts to the Wagner Fund, to any of Wagner's affinity and interest groups, as well as to student scholarships.

CAROLINA SILVA '16

CAROLINA SILVA '16 had not even finished her degree yet when she started giving back to Wagner.

"I first started giving to Wagner when I was a senior at Wagner," she says. Wagner College was holding its second annual Day of Giving in 2015, and the message about this one-day social media campaign reached her.

"I participated by giving to initiatives that were close to me," she recalls. Her mentor, Elisabeth Cardiello '06 M'07, had established an entrepreneurship award at Wagner, and Silva made a gift to support that award fund. "Liz is a great mentor of mine, and I wanted to support her work in the Wagner community. I also was a recipient of the award so I wanted to pay it forward," Silva explains.

After graduation, Silva and her partner, Ashley Olsen '11, gave to other Wagner causes that they held dear, particularly women's athletic teams, since they had both participated in Wagner athletics.
