American Studies students are strongly encouraged to take courses in languages other than English.

Majors will consult with their advisor to determine which SLC is appropriate for their concentration. Students will normally complete their SLC requirement in History, though some exceptions may be permitted in consultation with the chair of the History department.

Areas of Concentrations

Students must choose an area of concentration by the beginning of their junior year.

- African American Studies
- Government and Politics
- History
- Literature

*Requirements for African American Studies Concentration

In addition to the Foundation Course requirements students must complete a total of 4 electives within the field of African American History, Literature, Government and Politics, and or Sociology. Three of these courses must be at the 200-level or above from at least two disciplines.
