

WAGNER COLLEGE

Pinette Award Application

Wagner College is excited to be offering the first Pinette Award for students wishing to participate in education abroad. Dr. Pinette was the founder of the Bregenz Program (Wagner College in Austria). The Pinette award is granted as a financial opportunity which provides a current Wagner College student with the assistance to go for education abroad. The award is to be used towards travel, lodging, or tuition expenses for a Wagner College approved education abroad program. This stipend can only be utilized in the fall semester and it may be awarded to a recipient based on demonstrated financial need.
