Little Victory Theatre's 'Children of Eden'

"The Children of Eden," with music and lyrics by Stephen Schwartz and book by John Caird, will be presented by The Little Victory Theatre (4089 Victory Blvd., Travis).

The age-old conflict of parents and children takes the stage in this epic, heartfelt musical featuring the biblical stories of Adam and Eve and Noah's Ark.

The production stars Ari Axelrod, Andrew Martinnelli, Monet Sabel, appearing courtesy of the Actors Equity Association (Equity Approved Showcase), Dan Kriss, Kevin Rogers, Amanda Jane Snyder, Jillian Mauro, and Courtney Kenyon.

Performances are Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m., and Sunday at 2 p.m.

General admission tickets are $25; students/seniors/military pay $22. Reserve tickets by email at littlevictory16@gmail.com or by phone at 718-524-8467.

Solo exhibition at Wagner College

The Wagner College Gallery is hosting "Orienting Myself," the debut solo exhibition of works by Naomi Lee Baumol. In her artistic practice, Naomi Lee Baumol explores how she inhabits and makes sense of the world around her. The exhibition draws from two series of her work: "The Windowsill Drawings" and "Make Belief."

The exhibition will be up through April 27 and is free and open to the public.

The gallery is located in the Union Building on the Wagner College campus (631 Howard Ave., Grymes Hill).

The Wagner College Gallery is open Tuesday through Sunday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., with extended hours on Thursday until 9 p.m.
