

Carol Ann Benanti benanti@siadvance.com

Get set for the weekend! Here are just a few suggestions on how to spend your time. Events are all about live theater, fun fundraisers, art and fashion shows and indulging in fine food.

Have something going on? Email benanti@siadvance.com with all the info.

THURSDAY, APRIL 11

'The Pirates of Penzance'

The award-winning Wagner College Theatre, under the leadership of department chair Dr. Felicia Ruff, presents "The Pirates of Penzance," this weekend.

Directed and choreographed by Rusty Curcio, with music direction by Dr. Lauri Young, Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Pirates of Penzance" opens Thursday.

Set sail with this farce of sentimental pirates, bumbling policemen, young lovers, and an eccentric major-general.

Gilbert and Sullivan's musical follows young Frederic, an orphan who was mistakenly apprenticed to an ineffectual but raucous band of pirates.

Performances are Thursday through Saturday at 8 p.m., with matinees Saturday and Sunday at 2 p.m.

Located in Main Hall, the Wagner College Theatre box office (1 Campus Road, Grymes Hill) may be contacted at 718 390-3259 or boxoffice@wagner.edu.

Box office hours are Monday through Friday, noon to 4 p.m.

Single tickets are $18 to $32 with price ranges for children, senior and adult tickets. Wagner College students attend free with current ID.

'This Is a Print' exhibition

"This Is a Print" is an exhibition of antique and contemporary art, including pieces from the newly acquired collection of historian Barnett Shepherd, that surveys the history of prints and the differences among various mediums, including etchings, engravings, lithographs, mezzotints, and photogravures.

It is inspired by John A. Noble's preference for printmaking.

The exhibition will be on view through January 2020 in Building D at Snug Harbor Cultural Center & Botanical Garden, Richmond Terrace in Livingston.

See it anytime Thursday through Sunday from noon until 5 p.m. Phone 718-447-

The Beeping Egg Hunt returns to COMMONS Cafe on Friday. Staten Island Advance file photo

6490 or visit noblemaritime.org for more info.

Solo exhibition at Wagner College

The Wagner College Gallery is hosting "Orienting Myself," the debut solo exhibition of works by Naomi Lee Baumol.

In her artistic practice, Baumol explores how she inhabits and makes sense of the world around her.

The exhibition draws from two series of her work: "The Windowsill Drawings" and "Make Belief."

The exhibition will be up through April 27 and is free and open to the public.

The gallery is located in the Union Building on the Wagner College campus (631 Howard Ave., Grymes Hill).

The Wagner College Gallery is open Tuesdays through Sundays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., with extended hours on Thursdays until 9 p.m. For more info, visit naomileebaumol.com or phone 718-420-4504.

FRIDAY, APRIL 12

S.I. Tech's 'Chicago'

"Chicago," the Broadway smash hit musical based on Maurine Watkins' comedy hit of the same name, will be presented at Staten Island Technical High School (485 Clawson St., New Dorp) on Friday and Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are $10 at brownpapertickets.com (keywords: SITHS Presents Chicago) and will also be sold at the door.

Beeping Egg Hunt for visually impaired

On Friday from 3 to 6 p.m. at the COMMONS Cafe (2 Teleport Drive, Bloomfield) is the annual Beeping Egg Hunt.

All abilities can participate in this event, which is wheelchair accessible.

Eggs beep, letting the blind and visually impaired participate.

Games, crafts and prizes will also be available.

On hand will be a special presentation by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms & Explosives (ATF), and the New York Joint Terrorism Task Force.

The event is free. For those who wish to make a donation, funds will be used to support VISIONS Services for the blind and visually impaired.

Egg hunt start times: 3:30, 4, 4:30 and 5 p.m.

For additional information, and to RSVP, contact Holly Bonner at 347-257-9402 or holly@blindmotherhood.com.

Texas Hold'em

Put on your poker faces! Texas Hold'em, presented by the North Central Kiwanis Club, will be staged at 425 Victory Blvd., at the corner of Forest Avenue,

Dr. Howard Fox will be at the St. George Library presenting his dissertation on the process by which he composes music. Staten Island Advance file photo