

2023 Stanley Drama Awards Application

An Award of $2,000

The Stanley Drama Award offers a first place prize of $2,000 for an original full-length play, musical, or one-act play sequence that has not been professionally produced or received trade book publication. Writers of musicals may submit music with a digital link.

We consider only one submission (a single full-length play, musical, or one-act sequence) per playwright. Plays entered previously in the competition may not be resubmitted. Former Stanley Award winners are not eligible to compete.

A reading fee of $30 must accompany the manuscript. Enclose a check or money order for $30 US, payable to Wagner College. Include a SAS postcard if you wish to be advised that we have received your script and a SAS envelope if you would like us to notify you of the winner. Finally, if you would like your manuscript returned, please include a SAS mailing envelope, or your manuscript will be disposed of here.

Please mail manuscript, check, and any envelopes to Stanley Drama Award, Wagner College, One Campus Road, Staten Island, NY 10301. Submissions will be accepted beginning March 1, 2022, and must be postmarked no later than October 31, 2022.

The Stanley Drama Award is presented as a memorial to Alma Timolat Stanley (Mrs. Robert C. Stanley).
