- A. Written Examination: Wagner College Departmental/Proficiency Exam
- B. Oral Examination or Evaluation of Skills
- C. Documentation of Experience (As required by the department)

A student may apply for college credit for demonstrated or documented learning, which is germane to the liberal arts and professional programs at Wagner College. The request for credit should relate to specific courses and units at Wagner College with evidence being presented to show that the objectives of the specific course have been met. The applicant may present to a department for evaluation certain documents (diplomas, certificates, licenses, evidence of membership in professional or other appropriate associations, publications, research papers, essays, evidence of exhibits or performances, etc.). The department shall determine in each instance whether preparation and competence are satisfactory by knowledge of or inquiry into the standards the documentation represents.

The requirement for proficiency in spoken English is not affected by these regulations. If a student passes the proficiency test, no units in speech are granted.
